

18 November 2024 – for immediate release

Webinar on Digital Rights and Platform Regulation

You are invited to a webinar hosted by the Centre for Law and Democracy (CLD) on international freedom of expression standards on digital rights, focusing on standards for regulating online speech and emerging practices for regulating digital platforms. The webinar will feature presentations from CLD on international standards on digital rights and platform regulation, as well as a presentation from the co-director of El Veinte, a Colombian civil society organisation which has been active in digital rights litigation. The webinar is directed at lawyers who work at the national level and wish to enhance their understanding of international law standards in these areas, including with a view to bringing national rules more fully into line with international human rights.

The webinar will be held on 27 November 2024 at 8:30 Eastern Time/14:30 Central European Time. A draft agenda for the webinar is available here.

This webinar is being held as part of CLD's Supporting the Establishment of Networks of Media Lawyers Globally project, funded by the Global Media Defence Fund managed by UNESCO. The project seeks to encourage the creation of and support national-level networks of legal professionals working to advance media freedom and freedom of expression.
